Miss Ida O'Connell is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Dunnington.

Miss Broadwell, of Ironton, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Greenwood.

Mr. Jacob D. Riley, of Mayslick, was in the city yesterday with his beautiful babe—the envy of his old bachelor cronies.

WILLIAM TRACKETON has sold his one-hundred-acre farm, three miles west of Mayslick for one hundred dollars per acre, to Isaac Manley.

FORMAN'S CHAPEL, the new Methodist Church in the Fleming Oaks, will be dedicated on the fifth Sunday of April. Revs. Thomas Hanford, of this city, and G. W. Clarke, of Sardis, will assist in the dedication exercises.

"A SURRENDER to the South," "Northern Democrats Yield to the Demands of the Domineering Brigadiers;" "The Story of the Southern Arrogance and Northern Truckling Told Again;" "The Confederates Are Again in the Saddle," and so on. Such are the cries from the Republican papers of the North, in referring to the action of Congress on the Direct Tax Refunding bill. This is all bosh. The opponents of the measure acted from a sense of duty they owed the people of the country. The bill was only one of the many vicious schemes to get rid of the surplus in the treasury and keep up war taxes.
